Dave – good luck at the meeting this week, sorry I can't be there. Jim Keating helped the agency through some sticky negotiations with FL, so we are encouraged by his ability to support the discussions with the state/tribe this week.

Regarding final logistics, please let me know the following:

- Can you send me the latest version of the agenda. Benita asked that we send one up to her. I don't think we need the script, just the agenda.

- When you know, please send me the prevailing thought on whether Jim Curtin should participate. I'm in the office on today and Tuesday, then off to Alaska on Wednesday. I'm hoping we resolve Jim's participation status by COB today so I can relay that to him. If it doesn't happen by then, please send Jim an email in my absence to let him know one way or the other before the meeting with the tribe.

Cheers

I believe these will be the final comments on the internal script from HQ (no additions from the last email). I'll be travelling tomorrow during the better part of work hours, but I'll try to check email when I can. Otherwise, I will see you Regional folks first thing Wednesday morning.

Eric and I are meeting this afternoon at 1PM your time, but I thought I'd share some initial thoughts on the script that also reflect Sarah's review before she left this week (see attached)

This looks good to me, including Helen's edits.

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

So, my suggestion on what to say: The tribal boundary allocation is thorny on all sides. We don't have a silver bullet method to recommended. Open to ideas that both state and tribe can support.
